THE VOICE OF AIRPORTS

WELCOME

The Canadian Airports Council (CAC), a division of Airports Council International-North America, and the name through which ACI-NA operates in Canada, is the voice for Canada's airports. Formed in 1992, as the devolution of airports to local control from Transport Canada was beginning, the CAC has established itself as the reliable and credible federal representative for Canadian airports on a wide range of significant issues and concerns. Canada's airports are engines for economic development in the communities they serve and one of their most important elements of local infrastructure.

ACI-NA Gets Results for North American Airports

- ACI-NA is your advocate ensuring airports have the financial resources to meet the needs of passengers and their communities.
- ACI-NA is your watchdog, pushing back on over-reaching and costly federal regulations and legislation.
- ACI-NA is your representative, standing up for airports to make sure that government agencies work with you when developing and implementing security and facilitation measures.
- ACI-NA is your expert on key airport issues and policies—from the environment to security, safety to legal issues, and from NextGen to airport finance.
- ACI-NA is your source for valuable data, analysis, and benchmarking information to improve airport efficiency and reduce costs.
- ACI-NA is your resource for professional development, training and networking.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

Join ACI-NA today and get the advocacy, representation and industry information and analysis that you need as an airport operating in North America. Whether you are the director of a general aviation, small, medium or large airport; hub or non-hub; an ACI-NA membership provides its member airports with services that strengthen their abilities to serve their passengers, customers and communities.

Impact & Educate

Help shape policy and legislation by working with ACI-NA committees and initiatives.

Gain Insight

Access accurate, timely, and in-depth information and analysis on the latest issues, developments and opportunities affecting airports and the aviation industry.

Connect

Engage with your colleagues from other airports to share ideas, concerns and information through ACI-NA's conferences, committees, discussion forums and webinars.

Members Only Benefits

Receive quarterly industry and membership news from Centerlines and a daily amalgamation of headlines through Daily Clips.

CANADIAN AIRPORT MEMBERSHIP DUES

Dues for Canadian Airport Members are based on a function of an airport’s total passengers (pax.). The passenger levels are accounted for through the determination of an airport’s “traffic units” (TUs). For the determination of traffic units, a TU is assigned for each of the following:

- Each enplaned passenger = 1 TU
- Each deplaned passenger = 1 TU

Dues levels are based on total TUs (pax.) at an airport for the year in which a full year of traffic data is available from ACI World Traffic Reports (i.e., 2016 membership dues are based on 2014 traffic data since the information is calculated in October/ November 2015 time period).

CAC COMMITTEES

CANADIAN AIRPORTS COUNCIL
CONSEIL DES AÉROPORTS DU CANADA

The Canadian Airports Council offers its members the opportunity to participate in the association’s committees and work groups, which focus on key operational domains that are critical to airport operations. The CAC’s committees and work groups include:

Air Policy & Facilitation Committee ensures that airports are heard in ongoing reforms to Canada’s air regimes with nations around the world.

Cargo Sub-Committee collaborates to promote Canadian airports as ideal cargo gateways to North America.

Communications Group works together to manage communications matters that are common to Canadian airports.

Environment Committee assists in managing ever-changing regulatory requirements.

Facilitation Sub-Committee deals with unique passenger facilitation challenges, particularly on border issues.

Operations, Safety & Technical Affairs Committee keeps abreast of everyday operational matters and regulatory requirements.

Planning, Development & Infrastructure Group collaborates on planning and physical infrastructure projects.

Security Committee collaborates on security matters, including matters involving airports and the Canadian Air Transport Security Authority.

Small Airports Caucus is a policy committee that focuses on the unique needs of Canada’s small airports.

Please assign a representative to each committee (Primary Contact) to stay abreast of current events, recent developments and timely information in the industry.
